Fine Citrus Trees

A carefully selected bud on a perfect root system makes an unexcelled tree.

GROWN BY
CARROLL B. SMITH
REDLANDS, CALIFORNIA

Our nurseries are on a free sandy loam soil which develops a large, strong and very fibrous root system.

Buds are selected from trees carrying fruit at the time the bud wood is taken. This method reduces the chances of error to a minimum and gives us the best producing strains.

Our trees are grown in the open and never forced. This gives them natural vigor and hardihood.

We cull at every stage of growth. Cull the seed, cull the seedling and cull the buds. The stock we offer for sale represents the "Survival of the Fittest," and we are proud of it.

We make a specialty of selection. Without a good pedigree all the labor and expense of raising a tree is useless.

ORDERS AND SHIPPING.

Always order shipments by express if possible. The shipping weight of good sized trees, well packed, is about three pounds per tree.

Write name and full address plainly.

Orders will be shipped in the order received.

All orders will be acknowledged immediately upon receipt and confirmed or not according as we have stock to fill them.

Small orders of a few dozen trees or less should be accompanied by full payment.

Large orders should contain a remittance of 25% of the amount, the balance to be paid on receipt of goods.

Make remittance by money order, express order, checks or drafts.

Prices on application. State number and variety of trees.

Others can equal our prices but they cannot equal our stock.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We are always ready and glad to sell directly to the farmer or orchardist. We would, however, advise ordering through some local nurseryman if possible. It costs no more and is good business policy for many reasons.

Your local nurseryman is better able to receive your order promptly on arrival and give it proper care until you call for it.

He can adjust differences if any arise.

He saves you the trouble of ordering and, because it is his business, there is less chance of errors, delays, omissions, etc.

Your order, large or small, will receive our prompt and personal attention.
